

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- Free copy of our quarterly Gazette.
- News on developments in Standards, technical matters, failures and legislation.
- Opportunities to attend general meetings, special site visits and seminars.
- Opportunities for liaison with equipment inspectors throughout Australia and New Zealand.
- Inclusion in the AIES Directory of Members.
- Participation in the AIES Numbering Scheme (Members Grade S, M only).

CRITERIA FOR MEMBERSHIP

Membership is available to people with an interest in the safety of hazardous equipment as defined in the Institute's Objects. This includes boilers & pressure vessels, cranes, lifts, amusement devices and passenger ropeways. The three main grades of personal membership are Senior Member (Grade S), Member (Grade M) and Associate (Grade B). (Membership may also be held by organisations under Grade C.)

Equipment Inspectors or Design Verifiers certificated at the senior level usually satisfy AIES criteria for Senior Membership Grade S. Qualifications and experience are also taken into account. The applicant must have documented evidence of five (5) years suitable experience in inspection or verification.

Applicants for Member Grade M must hold a suitable certificate of competency or equivalent. At the time of application they must hold employment in this area and supply documentary evidence.

People who may be entering the industry or who do not possess all the above credentials but who have some technical competence in the area of hazardous equipment are usually eligible for admission as Associate Grade B.

APPLICATIONS

These should be made on form AIP0-02 and require nomination & seconding by an existing member. We are not registered for GST, so this will not be levied. Application forms and a complimentary copy of our Gazette may be obtained from:

AIES PO Box 172, KEIRAVILLE NSW 2500, AUSTRALIA

RESPONSIBILITIES

Members are expected to act ethically and in accordance with the Rules & Objects (Document AIP0-10). Any lists of members are confidential and must not be used for distributing unsolicited promotional material, nor may they be divulged to other parties. Membership of the Institute, if cited on any documents or advertising material must be in the format approved in writing by the Institute.
